October 2018 News & Updates

A Shining Star: Kelly Castillo

" Find the place inside yourself where nothing is impossible."

- Deepak Chopra

Returning to New York City after seven years living in the Dominican Republic, Kelly felt lost in the educational system. She almost gave up on education and herself. Just one post on social media brought her to East Side House and a whole new outlook on her own potential.

Volunteering That Matters

"Lose yourself in the service of others."

- Mahatama Gandhi

Companies like Goldman Sachs understand that the hands-on approach to community makes a difference. Thank you to all our volunteers who give back to our students.

Community Forum Inspires Civic Voices of Youth

"Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about the things that matter."

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Youth have a vested interest in community change. This month, preparing for the mid-term election, East Side House brought children and teens together to discuss issues that matter in their lives.
