

East Side House Settlement

Education, Innovation, Results

October 2016 News & Updates

A Shining Star: Dominique Bedford

"My school was so close to home that I knew everyone, but found myself involved in problems with other people. I was losing focus and ready to give up," Dominique recalls her final days at her local high school before transferring to East Side House's Smith Young Adult Borough Center (YABC) program.

Meet Dominique and learn how ESH's Smith YABC changed her life.

Team East Side House Counts Down to Marathon Sunday

On Sunday, November 6, 2016, five dedicated young men and women will make the 26.2 mile journey across the five boroughs alongside thousands from all over the world. Together they make up Team East Side House. Last week they met up with some of the students whose education they're supporting.

Who is Team East Side House? Find out in this month's edition.

ESH Program Offers Second Chances

and New Horizons

This past Wednesday, ESH's Lehman YABC program hosted their College Fair. Fifteen colleges and training institutions set up shop in Lehman High School's cafeteria. Here, students are pushed out of their comfort zones to start considering their futures.

Meet a few of the students and learn more about the program.

Career Fair Draws A Crowd

On October 25, over fifteen community-based organizations, government agencies, and educational institutions came on site to Mitchel Community Center, to open doors and provide opportunity to NYC job seekers.

Find out Jobs-Plus's secret sauce to success for job seekers.

Looking for an inspiring and rewarding career? At ESH you can have both. Learn more here.

Connect with us!

